

PRESIDENT HAS MADE A REPORT

Takes Up The Brownsville Matter In Detail
Before Congress This Morning.

SUBSTANTIATES HIS STAND FIRMLY

Gives Details That Tend To The Discharge Of The Negro
Troops--Rescinds Part Of The Order Of Dismissal.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, D. C., Jan. 14.—President Roosevelt today sent to the senate a special message regarding the Brownsville incident, which gives additional evidence collected by Assistant Attorney General Purdy and Major Blockson, who were sent to Texas by the President to investigate affairs.

The Evidence

The President's Brownsville message, accompanied by a box neatly wrapped and tied with red tape containing the cartridges and shells as exhibits in the case, were received by the senate today. The message was read immediately after its receipt and was attentively listened to. The exhibits were not opened, however, but remained on the desk of the vice president. At the conclusion of the reading Senator Foraker requested it be printed with the accompanying exhibits.

"To the senate: In my message to the senate treating of the dismissal, without honor, of certain named members of the three companies of the 25th infantry, I gave the reports of the officers upon which the dismissal was based. These reports were made in accordance with the custom in such cases; for it would, of course, be impossible to preserve discipline in the army save by pursuing precisely the course that in this case was pursued. Inasmuch, however, as in the senate inquiry was raised as to the sufficiency of the evidence, I deemed it wise to send Maj. Blockson, and Assistant to the Attorney General Purdy, to Brownsville to make a thorough investigation on the ground in reference to the matter. I herewith transmit Secretary Taft's report and the testimony taken under oath of the various witnesses examined in the course of the investigation. I also submit various exhibits, including maps of Brownsville and Fort Brown, photographs of various buildings, a letter from Judge Parks to his wife, together with a bandoleer, thirty-three empty shells, seven ball cartridges, and four clips picked up in the streets of Brownsville within a few hours after the shooting; three

IOWA'S GOVERNOR IS EXTREMELY RADICAL

Sends His Message to the Legislature—Full of Many Reforms.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 14.—The thirty-second general assembly convened today and N. E. Kendall was elected speaker, and James A. Smith president of the senate. Governor Cummins' message urges a thorough going reform in the methods of nominating the candidates for office; it recommended the passage of a primary law covering all elective offices, including senators of the United States; legislation requiring the railroads to carry passengers at two cents per mile; that the pure food law be amended so as to afford protection to live stock foods; the prohibiting of corporations making contributions to political parties; the adoption of civil service in appointing state employees; for an annual franchise corporation tax; for a employer's liability law, and a direct inheritance tax.

CLOSER ALLIANCE WITH THE FARMERS

Will Be One of the Important Matters Discussed by Labor Federation of Tennessee.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 14.—The tenth annual convention of the Tennessee State Federation of Labor, which opened in Nashville today, is the largest gathering in point of attendance ever held by that body. Delegates from locals throughout the state filed Twin City Hall when the convention was formally called to order at 10 o'clock this morning. Many matters of unusual importance are on the agenda for discussion and action during the several days the convention will be in session. A more rigid enforcement of the factory inspection and child labor laws will be urged. The proposed working agreement between the labor bodies and the State Farmers' Union will receive attention. Organized labor in politics is another important subject that will be discussed. These matters and the election of officers for the year, are calculated to keep the delegates busy until final adjournment.

CIVIL SUIT FOR A MILLION DOLLARS

Rhineland Man Plaintiff Against Land and Lumber Companies of Northern Wisconsin.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Grand Rapids, Wis., Jan. 14.—The suit of F. H. Johnson of Rhineland against the Marshfield Land and Lumber company, Upham Manufacturing company and the Copper River Land company came up for trial today. It is one of the largest civil suits ever brought in Wisconsin and involves title lands valued at more than $1,000,000. The complainant claimed an option on the lands, owned by the Marshfield and Upham companies, which he alleges were transferred to the Copper River company for $200,000 before his option had expired.

ECLIPSE OF SUN IS NOT VISIBLE HERE

Center of Belt of Totality Included Entirely in Asiatic Russia—Scientists There.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Washington, D. C., Jan. 14.—North America can observe but a small part of old Sol's performance today when he hides himself behind the moon. This part of the world is not in the zone of total eclipse, but in some sections of the continent interested amateurs can strain their necks to witness a part of the strange heavenly phenomena. The center of the belt of totality lies in Asiatic Russia, and, according to the cable dispatches, astronomers, physicists, photographers and scientists of all branches have pitched their camps to take observations. Near the city of Tashkent eminent groups of scientists under the patronage of universities and royal societies of France, Germany, Russia and other countries have set up their instruments with long, unpronounceable names in order to observe the eclipse. In addition to making the usual observations, the expeditions are to study the condition of the upper air by means of balloons and improved automatic instruments.

Alabama Installs B. B. Comer in Gubernatorial Chair with Very Elaborate Ceremonies.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Montgomery, Ala., Jan. 14.—The inauguration of B. B. Comer as governor of Alabama today was accompanied by ceremonies more elaborate than were ever seen here before on a similar occasion. Citizens and soldiers turned out en masse to pay tribute to the new executive, the city being crowded with visitors who had been pouring in since Saturday. Both branches of the legislature witnessed the ceremonies and applauded the introductory speech of Governor Jelks and the inaugural address of his successor. After Governor Comer had been sworn in the oath of office was administered to the other new state officials. Great preparations have been made for the inaugural ball tonight which will be attended by society people from all over the state.

SURPRISING CHARGES MADE AGAINST MINISTER PIERCE

Claims That He Represented Ship Owners At Hearing At The Hague Against Russia.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, D. C., Jan. 14.—Sensational charges against United States Minister Pierce, Norway, were made before the house committee on ways and means today by Prof. H. W. Elliott of Cleveland, in connection with a resolution for further protection of our seals on the high seas. Prof. Elliott stated that while Pierce was representing the United States before the Hague tribunal in settlement of claims growing out of the seizure of sealing vessels of J. Hamilton Lewis by the Russian government on the charge of piracy, he also represented the owners of the vessels and even instituted action in the United States district court of the District of Columbia to insure payment of his fee out of the money awarded to the vessel owners.

"FOR THE ENLARGEMENT OF OUR FOREIGN TRADE"

Convention In Washington Which Is Being Attended By George S. Parker, Representing State Of Wisconsin.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Washington, D. C., Jan. 14.—Several hundred delegates, appointed by the governors of the numerous states and by boards of trade and other official organizations throughout the country, met in convention at the New Willard hotel today to consider and decide measures for the enlargement of our foreign trade and to promote the demand abroad for the product of our farms, workshops and mines.

The initiative in calling the gathering was taken by a special committee of the New York Board of Trade and Transportation, acting on the suggestions and with the cooperation of commercial bodies throughout the United States. Hope is expressed by the promoters of the movement that substantial results will be attained through the deliberations. Secretary of State Root and other men of wider prominence will address the conference.

Among the larger organizations represented are the Manufacturers' Association of New York, Boston Chamber of Commerce, Providence Chamber of Commerce, Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce, Buffalo Chamber of Commerce, Board of Trade of Pensacola, Fla., Board of Trade of Tampa, Fla., American Hardware Manufacturers' association, Board of Trade of Indianapolis, Board of Trade of Philadelphia, National Boot and Shoe Manufacturers' association, Elmira Chamber of Commerce, Chamber of Commerce of Quincy, Ill., Michigan Manufacturers' association, American Hardware Manufacturers' association, Chamber of Commerce of Pittsburg, San Jose Chamber of Commerce, and Commercial club of Omaha.

The reorganization of the consular service, ship subsidy and other questions having a bearing on America's foreign trade and its extension are to be exhaustively discussed. The gathering will come to a close Wednesday night with a banquet at the Arlington at which President Roosevelt, Secretary Straus and others will speak.

LEGISLATURE WILL NOT BE EXCEEDINGLY LENIENT NOW

Prospect Of Anti-Liquor Legislation Being Passed This Winter Is Very Doubtful.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Jan. 14.—Anti-saloon legislation will not have much of a show of enactment in the session of the Wisconsin legislature which gets to its first work following organization, Tuesday morning, when Speaker Ekern announces the committees of the assembly and the first rush of bills comes in. It is said that Governor Davidson and State Chairman and Lieutenant Governor Connor have determined that they want none of this class of legislation to get through the legislature. This is not particularly because either of the leaders in the present administration is a pro-saloon man, although there have been covert charges made to that effect, but they believe that such legislation is unnecessary and very impolitic. The statutes are far with measures designed to compel people to be good and to restrain their personal liberty, and the more such laws are enacted the more such laws are not enforced and are allowed to become dead letters. This seems to be the opinion of the administration. It is also unquestionably believed that adversity is invited in politics for the movement that fathers anti-saloon crusades in the legislature. Governor Davidson is the possessor of an exceptionally fine driving horse, from the stables of Captain Frederick Pabst, of Milwaukee. It is acknowledged that the price paid by the governor for the valuable animal was ridiculously small, and that the purchase resulted from a dinner joke between the executive of the state and the head of the big brewing company. Another circumstance that causes some enemies of the liquor traffic to fear the efficacy of the anti-saloon legislation which will get the governor's signature is that the governor's daughter is engaged to be married to Arthur Imbusch of Milwaukee, member of a wealthy family of wholesale liquor dealers. Surely the governor is no crank.

Not only do the liquor interests entertain no fear that the present legislature will enact laws seriously threatening their interests, but they are determined to get some statutes of their own advantage. Bills will be introduced making it an offense for a minor to represent himself as being of age so that a barkeeper will sell him liquor and thus break the law, and endanger the saloon's license. It is also desired that a law be passed to bar from saloon prosecutions evidence of minors hired by anti-saloon agents to buy liquor so as to get evidence against the saloon. While some members of the legislature declare that such laws would be fair, they will hardly be passed.

ABOUT BURNING OF HYATT HOUSE

MORE FACTS WHICH WILL BE OF INTEREST TO MANY

OLD CLOCK STILL ON DUTY

In 'Baumann Bros.' Grocery Store—
Names of the Guests at the Hospitality Night of the Fire.

For forty years the fine old mahogany-cased clock, which was torn from the office walls during the progress of the Hyatt House fire, has been ticking off the minutes and hours on its silver-rimmed dial in the store now occupied by Baumann Bros. grocery establishment. The word "Janesville" had been printed in gilded letters across the lower glass which shields the pendulum and only the final letter "E" had to be restored.

THE HYATT HOUSE WHICH WAS DESTROYED BY FIRE JAN. 12, 1867

ters across the lower glass which shields the pendulum and only the final letter "E" had to be restored. Anson Rogers bought the clock, and when he sold the building to the late John Baumann the old timepiece was included in the transfer. It has been a good and faithful sentinel and has been off duty but once or twice during the two score years. John Tinney has a cup and saucer recovered from the ruins and Charles Patterson has a picture which was saved.

"Mr. Tinney Talks
John Tinney, who was bell-boy in the hotel at the time, was a visitor at the Gazette office this morning. While he was examining the files of 1867 he said: "I was in room 74 that night and Maggie Emerson, who was burned to death, was in 76, the apartment adjoining. John Conroy came up and gave the warning and I got out with nothing on but an old linen coat. There was a terrific draught and the roar filled my ears as I ran from the building. Some said that the girl got out and then ran back to her room, but that would have been impossible. I remember, as I stood shivering in the street, seeing her come to the window and hearing her cry: 'For God's sake save me!' Then the wall collapsed and she was undoubtedly pitched back into the fiery furnace. Often as I go by the spot now I seem to see her in that window and hear that terrible cry for help." Janesville Daily Gazette, Monday, January 14, 1867.—Nothing Discovered.—Search was made yesterday morning under the direction of the Mayor for the remains of the unfortunate girl burned to death, but without success.

DOCTORS ADMIT

That They Can Do Nothing More For Your Stomach Than Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are Doing Every Day.

COSTS NOTHING TO TRY.
According to the expert analysis of government authorities in the United States and Great Britain, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets contain the exact elements provided by nature for digesting food in the healthy stomach.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have saved sufferers from stomach disorders millions of dollars by giving them, in one small 50 cent package, more relief than countless treatments by physicians would bring about at $3.00 per visit.

Perhaps you are afflicted with dyspepsia—or some kindred disease arising from a disordered digestion. It may be headaches, heartburn, palpitation, liver trouble, insomnia, nervous debility. They all have their beginning in a stomach which does not secrete the juices or grind the food which is taken into it.

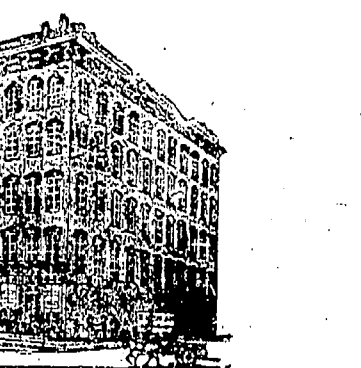

So, we urge you to send for a free trial package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. It will cost you nothing and surely will bring us no gain unless you find, after using it, that you are benefited and feel that you need a full-sized package.

There is absolutely no danger in using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Nothing is contained in them that has not been subjected to the closest scrutiny by government officials.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest your food without demanding a careful diet. One grain of these Tablets has power to digest 3,000 grains of ordinary food. You can be sure therefore that no matter what your condition, these little tablets taken after each meal will shortly restore your stomach to its normal condition and render it capable of doing its work unassisted.

We withhold the names of hundreds who have written us voluntarily expressing their gratitude to this simple substitute for nature. Send for trial package today. F. A. Stuart Co., 70 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

There has been and continues to be much speculation relative to the origin of the fire. Several persons at the hotel between 7 and 11 o'clock in the evening testify to smelling smoke as of burning pine. Many theories have been advanced to account for this, but Mr. Rich, the clerk of the house, informs us that this was very likely caused by a fire built in a room where the chimney flue did not work, thus filling a portion of the house with smoke.

It has been ascertained that the records of the assessor of internal revenues, which were deposited in the vault of the U. S. Express office are entirely safe and unharmed.

HIGH SCALE; SHORT HOURS; SAME PAY

System Used on Switchmen by Chicago & Northwestern Railway Company.

Though the switchmen in the employ of the Northwestern railway company were granted an increase in wages at the last conference between the Brotherhood grievance committee and the company officials this class of employees draws about the same pay as previously. Under the old system they worked twelve hours a day but since the raise went into effect the working day has been cut to ten hours. Thus, though the switchmen gain in one way, they do not get larger checks on pay day.

SURPRISE PARTY AT A. E. BINGHAM HOME

Proved to be A Most Enjoyable Event For All of the Participants.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bingham were surprised by a company of friends at their home on Wisconsin street Saturday evening, the occasion being their wedding anniversary. The unexpected guests arrived on the scene well provided with the substantial for a delicious and a social good time was enjoyed until the hour-hand pointed to midnight.

And Then Some.

It is said that the immortal lines beginning, "Mother may I go out to swim?" are 1,300 years old. Multiplying 1,300 by 1,300 will show the number of times they have been parodied.

HOW THEY SQUIRMED

Great Times When Children Had to Take Old-Fashioned Cod Liver Oil and Emulsions.

You had to bribe them, hold their noses, in fact go through a regular circus to get them to take it.

That was years ago, before the two eminent French chemists, Morques and Caubert, discovered how to separate the medicinal elements of cod liver from the useless, nauseating oil, and produced Vinol.

Vinol is not a patent medicine but a real cod liver oil preparation containing in a highly concentrated form all of the body-building, strength-creating elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cods' livers, with all the useless oil eliminated and tonic iron added. It tastes fine and children love it. Wherever old-fashioned cod liver oil or emulsions will do good, Vinol will do far more good.

A member of the Smith Drug Co. says: "It is because we know so well of what Vinol is made that we ask every mother who has a weak, delicate or ailing child, and in fact every run-down, debilitated, aged or weak person in Janesville, and every person suffering from such bronchitis, haemorrhage or other ailments, to try Vinol or Vinol emulsion to return their money if it fails."

NOTE.—While we are sole agents for Vinol in Janesville, it is now for sale at the leading drug store in nearly every town and city in the country. Look for the Vinol agency in your town. Smith Drug Co.

ICE POLO PROVED AN INTERESTING CONTEST

Second Ward Team Won From Monterey by a Score of Two to Zero Sunday.

In a fast and exciting game of polo played in Monterey yesterday, the Second Ward team defeated the Monterey, the final score being 2 to 0. Daly and O'Grady securing one goal apiece. Considerable rough work was indulged in by some of the players. The Second Ward team played a clean game, outplaying their opponents in team work at every stage. The game was called at 2:30 o'clock and was witnessed by about 600 people. Following was the line-up:

ENDLESS PRAYER IS SCORED IN PULPIT

Dr. J. W. Laughlin Advises Members of Presbyterian Church to Ignore Letters.

The endless chain of prayers that has caused the local postoffice employees and numerous residents of the city endless annoyance during the past few months was scored in the Presbyterian church pulpit last evening. Dr. J. W. Laughlin made mention of the anonymous note he had received and advises his hearers to ignore any such appeal should they receive one. He termed the chain the work of some religious crank. The letter referred to follows:

"O Lord Jesus Christ, we implore Thee to have mercy on all mankind. Keep us from all sin by thy precious blood and take us to dwell eternally. Amen."

"This prayer was written by Bishop Lawrence, recommending it to be written and sent to nine other persons. We who will not say it will be afflicted by some misfortune." One who paid no attention to it met with a dreadful accident. We who will write this prayer for nine days and send it to nine other persons, commencing the day it arrives—only one day—on the ninth day expect great joy. At Jerusalem during the Holy Feast it was heard said we who will write this prayer shall be exempt from all calamity.

"Please do not break this chain."

"This is an exact copy of a letter received."

THREE HOT DEBATES FOR SOCIAL UNION

Expected From Program on Wealth, Its Accumulation and Distribution—C. H. Hemingway Leader.

Three hot debates and a warm general discussion are expected at the January meeting of the Social Union Club, to be held in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium tomorrow evening at 6:15 o'clock. Charles H. Hemingway, who was elected leader at the last meeting, has arranged the following program:

Henry H. Rogers

Henry Haddleston Rogers, known now to be the real executive head of the Standard Oil company, was born 66 years ago at Fairhaven, Ct. He began to make his living as a newsboy. He then, while still in his boyhood, began to learn the sperm oil business, and when 21 years old was worth $40,000. He went into western Pennsylvania, where the mineral oil discoveries took place. When the big amalgamation of oil interests took place and the Standard Oil company was formed H. H. Rogers was made a vice president. Mr. Rogers has been married twice. His first wife was Miss Abbie T. Gilford of Fairhaven, Ct. She died in 1893, leaving three daughters and a son. On June 4, 1896, he married Miss Amelia Augusta Randel of New York city. His New York home is practically a palace and is situated at Fifth avenue and Fifty-eighth street. He is supposed to be worth $100,000,000.

Before The Footlights.

Land o' Cotton. The pretty southern musical romance which plays at the Myers Theatre the night of Jan. 15th, comes heralded as the peer of all southern romances. It is a story of the old, the old days of the south. The characters presented are quaint, the humor bright and sparkling, and the dramatic situations clear-cut and truthfully drawn. It is not a hurry many now presented, but a smoothly running, intensely dramatic story, told with a vigor and snap that convinces. There are many interpolations of the sweet, tuneful melodies of the southland interwoven, with the thread of a most beautiful life story. There is not one dull moment throughout the entire evening, during the unfolding of the plot.

The company is headed by Miss Gertrude Dodd, who has sung her way into the hearts of many thousands of the American theatregoers. The supporting company is a carefully selected one, being composed of artists of known ability. The scenic effects are up to the highest standard and this attraction is guaranteed by its management to be second to none in the way of play, players and stage equipment.

Mildred Holland. Mildred Holland can show a record of stage achievement which is equalled by few American stars. Born to the purple, so far as art is concerned, Miss Holland has won her present position by more than mere luck. Her life has not been one of rose strewn ease. Her successes have all been won by untiring effort, constant application, sincerity of purpose, and a determination to reach the top, which, were she a man, would make her a leader in any field of activity.

Miss Holland studied dramatic art at the Chicago conservatory where her genius attracted attention. She won prizes with the ease with which a hoy blows bubbles. Miss Holland's first professional engagement was with "Superba," followed by her successful rendition of "Diane" in "Pau Kanvar," after which she became a member of Augustin Daly's Stock company. Then came the portrayal of Fan Fan in "Two Little Vagrants," which made her famous; after that her brilliant triumph as "Aria" in "The Power Behind the Throne," then Angela in "The Lily and The Prince," which brought her new laurels, and this was followed by her triumph as Catherine the Great in "The Triumph of an Empress."

During her spring season at Buffalo last year she created two new characters, that of Ochippe in "Lotus Blossoms" (A Japanese Idyll), and Charette in "One Short Hour" (a story of the Franco-Prussian War). During her stay in Buffalo she also appeared in Madame Rejane's version of "Sappho." Mildred Holland will appear at the Myers Theatre Friday, January 18, in her new play, "A Paraded. Miss Holland has won her present

Who Will Win Titles In Hockey?

The Annual Pittsburg Campaign Is In Full Swing.

Intercollegiate Champions and How Harvard Is Booming Game.

What teams will win the hockey championships this year? That is the one big question now bothering the digestion of several hundred ice experts in the east and middle west.

In Pittsburg the annual burst of hockey enthusiasm arrived on schedule time. Almost every night the clashing of stout sticks and the flash and click of steel blades in the Duguesne Garden rink denote that the fray is fraying. Pittsburg will make a desperate effort this year, as usual, to capture the international supremacy by defeating the strong Canadian teams.

The Crescent A. C. team, Brooklyn, is the champion of the Amateur Hockey league and looks the winner this season again.

Hockey has the best record of any winter sport undertaken at Harvard, and the Harvard hockey team has perhaps the best record ever made by any college organization in intercollegiate athletics. For five years in succession the crimson has won the intercollegiate championship in the sport and in spite of the fact that she has had poorer weather conditions than any of her rivals.

In former years every effort has been bent on turning out a winning varsity team in this sport, but now that the sport has been so well established an effort will be made this year to get as many men as possible to play the game for the fun of it.

SWEET MARIE, TURF QUEEN.

The Greatest Race Mare of the World and Her Records.

Sweet Marie, 2:02, the greatest trotter of the American harness turf, has been sold and, from all reliable reports, retired from a racing career, yet she is and always will be the most talked of horse of her time.

She is now owned by a gentleman horseman of Philadelphia, E. T. Stotesbery, who is likely to keep her before the public for a long time.

Like many a famous champion of the world's racing turf, the birth and growth of Sweet Marie were humble and unattractive, she being foaled as the property of a colored expressman and looked upon as an unpromising youngster.

Sweet Marie holds more championship records than any three of the most famous trotters put together. Many more honors have been taken from her as a trotting mare by the wind shield records of Lou Dillon, yet Sweet Marie has trotted a mile without the wind shield faster than any other trotter in the world and without any question or dispute. She carries the following championship records, all made in hard fought events:

The world's champlai race mare—2:02.34. Winner of fastest heat in race—2:03.74.

Winner of fastest second and third heats in race—2:03.24 and 2:04.74.

Winner of fastest five heat race—2:05.34. 2:04.74, 2:05.74, 2:06.74, 2:07.74.

World's fastest heat trotted without wind shield and dismuted—2:02.34. The fastest dead heat—2:03.74.

WISCONSIN WEATHER FORECAST

Fair, decidedly colder with cold wave tonight; Tuesday fair, colder.

SWOLLEN FORTUNES.

David Graham Phillips, of much-rake fame, while no longer on the McClure staff, is still busily engaged in disseminating the same pernicious doctrine.

In the last "Saturday Evening Post," he contributes an article on swollen fortunes. His arguments are strong and misleading, as all arguments are where only one side of the case is treated.

He regards inherited wealth, in the hands of a few people, as a great menace to the nation, and favors an inheritance tax of such dimensions, that swollen fortunes will melt away like the dew.

In other words, he advocates the confiscation of property after death, when the holder is no longer in position to contest the claim—another form of socialism in disguise.

He claims that twenty families in the United States have incomes varying from five million to twenty million dollars, while 16 million families are obliged to put up with $600 incomes, a comparison which might seem odious if true.

In his ambition to denounce wealth, he asserts that nine-tenths of the people absorb half the national income, whatever that means, while the other half is appropriated by the other one-tenth.

A "national income" is too intangible a thing to discuss intelligently. There are individual incomes of various dimensions, distributed more evenly in America than in any other nation on the globe, but the nation has no income, except the money contributed by the people for national expenses, and this is so wisely apportioned, that it is never burdensome.

Swollen fortunes is another proposition that is being exploited today by a lot of people whose principal grievance is found in the fact that they are not in line for inheritance.

But what about the 16 million poverty-stricken families? Who are they, and where do they live? Four million of these families live in the large centers of population, but even these are not all paupers. If the head of the household is strong enough to carry a hod he is earning $3 a day.

If he possesses the skill of a mechanic, he receives from $4 to $8 a day, and his services are in active demand. If he is a foreigner, he has the satisfaction of knowing that he can earn double the money in this country, that he ever earned in the fatherland.

But what are conditions away from these large centers of population, the district which Mr. Phillips has failed to exploit? There are 6 million farmers, in the country, whose average wealth is $10,000. This disposes of a liberal slice of the 16 million who are supposed to be struggling for existence. In the tens of thousands of hamlets and villages, scattered over the land, it is a rare thing to find a house to rent, for the very good reason that they are occupied by the owners.

The same conditions prevail in the inland cities, to large extent. Janesville has about 2000 families, and 2000 of them are real estate taxpayers.

If Mr. Phillips will take Peru for a few days and recover from the fit of indigestion, which seems to be troubling him, life will present a more cheerful aspect. If he will take into account the fact that 48 per cent of the voters in this country pay taxes on real estate, it may help him to appreciate his birthright.

UNFILTERED IMMIGRATION

"It is fortunate that the report of the commissioner general of immigration for the year 1905-'06 appears in time to instruct and possibly to influence congress in its effort to strengthen the immigration laws," says the New York Tribune. "There is an act now pending in conference committee which slightly amends the law of 1903. But in the form in which it passed the house of representatives it is a mere legislative makeshift. The senate deserves credit for dealing with the immigration problem in a courageous and intelligent spirit.

"The Dillingham, or senate, bill sought to check the alien inflow and to improve the quality of applicants for citizenship by increasing the head tax and enforcing a moderate educational test. But the house, apparently affected by the protests of certain foreign colonies and associations in the larger cities, struck out the restrictions and left the barriers against undesirables as flimsy as ever.

"Commissioner Sargent's report emphasizes the folly of trifling with the immigration question. In the last two fiscal years—1904-'05 and 1905-'06—we have admitted more than 2,100,000 aliens, nine-tenths of them having no knowledge of our language and being utterly unacquainted with our laws, customs and institutions. Moreover, while the volume of the incoming alien tide is steadily increasing, the character of the applicants is changing for the worse.

"Fifteen or twenty years ago we recruited our citizenship almost entirely from the peoples of northern Europe. Ireland, England, Scotland, Wales, Germany and the Scandinavian nations supplied us with immigrants nearly allied to us in blood, habits and ideas and readily assimilable. But the northern movement has nearly ceased, and three-fourths to four-fifths of the applicants for adoption nowadays come from the Mediterranean basin—from Italy, Austria-Hungary and southern Russia. In the last two years a new recruiting ground has been opened in Turkey in Europe and Turkey in Asia, Syrians and Armenians being attracted here in larger and larger numbers.

"With these southern Europeans and Asiatics the colony habit is highly developed, for, being handicapped by lack of assimilability, they cannot scatter through the country as the northern immigrants used to do. They herd, therefore, in a few cities, live an intensive life and are politically, socially and industrially a stumbling block to sound national development. Italy, Austria-Hungary and Russia sent us in 1905-'06 753,913 homeseekers.

"Practically all of them, according to Mr. Sargent's figures, came to swell the foreign colonies already existing in this city, Boston, Chicago and Baltimore and in the Pennsylvania mining regions.

"It is foolish to think that we can go on indefinitely digesting or trying to digest this raw material. It would be wiser to cut the supply down by half and to raise the standards of qualification. A head tax of $20 or $25 might prove a deterrent in many cases, but an educational or language test would be more effective.

"We are now at that stage of growth when we can afford to pick and choose, instead of throwing the doors wide open to all comers. There is room here for the desirable immigrant, and he should be encouraged to cast his lot with us. But we injure him as well as ourselves when we permit our hospitality to be abused and the value of our gift of citizenship to be wantonly depreciated.

The immigration question, as discussed by the New York Tribune in another column, is one of the most serious problems with which the nation is confronted. The large centers of population, in this country, are no longer American. They are controlled very largely by irresponsible voters who represent nothing but a ballot. It is time that the country woke up to the dangers of the situation.

PRESS COMMENT.

Milwaukee Sentinel: Says the Boston Globe, "The senate today is the finest body of men that money can buy." The temptation to say a cute thing has led the Globe into a shameful and unpatriotic implied untruth.

A Glance Ahead to 1908
Oshkosh Northwestern: Of course the state politicians will now commence to size up Speaker Ekern, to see how much prospect there may be of his becoming a candidate for governor next year—that's right, it is only next year.

He Means Surplus Wealth
Chicago Record-Herald: Andrew Carnegie in an article which he has just written for one of the magazines, says the time is coming when "the vast wealth of the world will be considered as a surplus."

noble. That will be glorious, but it isn't giving much comfort to the man who is getting down to the last fringe of his coal pile.

Tough Propositions in Montreal
Superior Telegram: The Montreal Witness attributes the prevalence of typhoid fever in that city to both the water and the milk. It says the water resembles dirty gruel and the milk swarms with bacteria. It is no snap to live in Montreal.

Keeping up the Good Fight
Brookhead Independent: A parlor car attached to a train on the Mineral Point division would be liable to cause as much excitement as did the appearance of the first Milwaukee-Mississippi train when it made its initial trip to Monroe in the fifties.

Oozing with Graft? Ah Shucks!
Fond du Lac Commonwealth: If Milwaukee is unable to run a garbage crematory or even collect ashes without graft, fairly oozing out at every side of the transaction, what chance will the taxpayers have when the city tackles some larger municipal ownership proposition?

Scorned Chance to Make Issues
Milwaukee News: Gov. Davidson hardly has raised himself in Mr. La Follette's estimation. Sending a message to the legislature without trying to make a single "issue" is likely to strike the former governor, who wrote messages to make "issues," an inexcusable negligence.

Janesville's Interurban to Chicago
Madison Journal: The finishing work upon the electric line between Elvidere and Elgin in Illinois, was done within the past six weeks, and now Janesville is directly connected with Chicago by electric railway. This means that when that Janesville interurban reaches Madison, the people of this city will have a direct line to Chicago, with the fare probably less than half that now charged by the railroads. This is only one of the many advantages which will accrue to Madison through the completion of the interurban. Will the common council please take notice that the people of Madison are anxious for interurbans; and while they do not wish any unwise concessions made to secure them, neither will they be patient with foolish and unnecessary delay in making it possible for lines to be built.

New Paper Trust Worse Than Old
Marquette Eagle-Star: The Green Bay Gazette Monday editorially says that rumor has it that within the next ninety days an ironclad news print trust will have charge of the paper mills making news print in this section of the country and that prices will "be put where they ought to be." This paper has reliable information that not only will such a "trust" be in operation in ninety days but that it is already in existence and has been so for some months, regular meetings of its western and eastern representatives being held in New York, where cast iron price schedules are given out. The information comes from a man high up in the paper trade and he claims that the General Paper company was not cold before the new combination was made, which he claims is boosting prices in a way that the General Paper company never did, or even attempted to do.

Railroad Men's Hours

Chicago Tribune: The passage of the La Follette bill by the senate is a natural consequence of the numerous railroad wrecks of the last few weeks. The fact presented by Senator La Follette that in twenty out of the last twenty-one wrecks the employees concerned had been on duty longer than regular time contributed to the success of the bill. Although it is not claimed that overwork was responsible in every case for the loss of life, it was probably a contributory cause in more cases than those in which it was directly and solely responsible. Men who are exhausted by overwork, especially if it is not an infrequent occurrence, are not so likely to exercise the best judgment in matter requiring quick decision.

A law like this protects railway employees. A more important thing is that it protects travelers. There are many men whom the promise of increased pay for overtime would induce to work beyond the safety line if permitted. The public must be guarded from accidents due to the exhaustion of willing workers quite as much as the unwilling must be saved from the compulsion of hard officials.

Condensation With a Vengeance
A Kansas editor is said to have entertained extreme ideas with reference to the value of a "condensed style." On one occasion owing to lack of space he wielded his pencil at the end of a syndicate serial story with this result in the way of compression: "Reginald took a small brandy, then his hat, his departure, besides no notice of his pursuers, meantime a revolver out of his pocket and lastly his own life."

Underdone.
Bobby gazed critically at his new baby brother.
"Don't you like him, dear?" asked the nurse.
"Y-es," he admitted. "But don't you think you ought to send him back for a minutes? He's too rare!"
—Cleveland Leader.

Might Head Her Off.
"Henry," said Mrs. Peck, "I am going to get a photograph and talk into it, so that if I happen to die first you can still hear my voice."
"Perhaps," replied Henry, hopefully, "I will die first."—Houston Post.

LIVELY MIXERS TO MEET ON THURSDAY

Janesville Athletic Club Has Match-Ed Barney Cinnamon and Kid Farmer.

What promises to be a most interesting boxing entertainment has been arranged by the Janesville Athletic Club for Thursday night, when Barney Cinnamon, the blonde-haired Milwaukee lightweight, is to don the mits with Kid Farmer, of Peoria, who appeared before the club's November gathering. "Red" Ryan of Rockford is to meet Young Slawson of this city in a preliminary and Young Agnew of Janesville will spar with Young Gibbs, a clever Deloit boy.

Deputies Appointed: Sheriff Fisher has appointed Turnkey George Appleby as undersheriff and has appointed the following as his deputies: Floyd Carter, S. W. Bardeen, and Rhody Sheibel all of Deloit; Charles Shimeall of Shopiere, B. Keith of Milton, and John Lynch of Avon. Other appointments will be announced in the near future.

Harney Lost Suit: Judge Fifield found for the defendant this morning in the civil action of G. C. Harney vs. Rollin Lewis, brought by the plaintiff to recover the premium on an insurance policy, which Harney claimed to have paid for the defendant, and which proceeding the defense maintained was never properly authorized or ratified. W. H. Dougherty appeared for the plaintiff and M. O. Mouat represented Mr. Lewis.

Knights of Columbus Have Issued Invitations to a Number of Distinguished Speakers.

On Monday evening, January 28, Carroll Council No. 536, Knights of Columbus, will hold its sixth annual banquet at Assembly hall. The committee in charge is making an effort to secure some distinguished speakers for the occasion, including Edward W. LeRoy of Marinette, defeated candidate for the assembly speakership.

Horse with Artificial Limb.
The veterinary profession is much interested in a surgical operation which has been accomplished by Prof. Udinski, one of the staff of the veterinary school at Bucharest. Having amputated a horse's limb at the fetlock joint, after several failures he succeeded in fitting a leather boot or artificial limb that enabled the animal to walk about and take exercise.

APPEAL TAKEN IN A. J. HARRIS CASE

Against the Street Ry. Co. Wherein the Plaintiff Recovered $180 in Lower Court.

An appeal to circuit court has been taken from Judge Reeder's $180 judgment for the plaintiff in the action of A. J. Harris vs. the Janesville Street Railway Co. which was tried in circuit court on October 11. During the summer a street car ran into and badly damaged the Harris four-wheeled car. When a lawsuit was instituted, notice was served on James Shearer, vice president of the company. The latter neglected to inform either Fether, Jeffris & Mount, the defendant's regular counsel, or Supt. Murphy and when the case came to trial there was no appearance for the Street Car Co. and judgment by default was entered. The case may be tried during the February term.

CASES IN COURT OF JUDGE REEDER

Two Actions Disposed of This Morning and an Interpleader Suit is on Trial This Afternoon.

In Judge Reeder's court today a judgment of $13.15 for the plaintiff was rendered in the action of H. H. Noel vs. Frank Hagunin. The action of D. M. Barlass vs. W. F. Feltz was adjourned one week. This afternoon the action of Paul Rudolph & Sons vs. Mrs. Nellie Cantwell and the C. M. & St. P. Ry. Co. as garnishee of John Murray is being tried. It is an interpleader action in which Rudolph & Sons garnished Murray and the St. Paul Ry. Co. answered that it owed the man $22.50, but that Mrs. Cantwell claimed the money under an assignment of his wages for a board bill. The latter appeared and joined issue with Rudolph & Sons as to who should have the money which has been placed in the hands of the court as referee.

FOUR YOUNG MEN PAID HEAVY FINES

For Participating in a Disturbance on South River Street Saturday Evening.

Fines and costs aggregating $18.80 were levied and collected in municipal court this morning from four respectable-looking young men who were participants in a noisy mix-up with one George Hurley on South River street Saturday evening. John Shickowski admitted that he was fighting and had had a few drinks of beer. Matthew Peters said that five or six jumped onto him and did not deny that he had his coat off and used language of anything but the parlor variety. Edward Blow said that he gave chase to Hurley, hoping to catch him, but failed; admitted tearing the fellow's hat up; and stated that he and his friends after accosting Hurley in a friendly way and receiving the surly response: "What do you want—two bits?" demanded an explanation which resulted in a row. Louis Beck said that he got hit, but wasn't able to land any blows himself. The mothers of the Blow and Beck boys were in court.

PLAYED ECHO ORGAN GIVEN BY DECEASED

Funeral Services of Mrs. Cornelia Webb at Congregational Church This Morning.

Loving friends of the late Mrs. Cornelia Webb paid last tribute to her this morning, gathering at the Congregational church at eleven o'clock for the funeral. Rev. R. C. Denison delivered the sermon and most impressive musical services were rendered. At a request left by the deceased pieces selected by her were played on the echo organ. This was given to the church by Mrs. Webb. Miss Ada Pond was organist and the singers were Mrs. S. B. Lewis, Mrs. W. S. Jeffris, C. N. Van Kirk and William Blanton. The remains were conveyed to the North-Western depot and left for Rochester, N. Y., at half-past twelve o'clock. The pallbearers were A. A. Jackson, J. L. Ford, Silas Hanger, Charles Cleland, William Ringer and Josiah T. Wright. During the hour of the funeral the store of Hall & Sayles was closed, Mr. Webb having been the founder of the firm and a partner of Mr. Hall.

WHAT FOURTH AVE. BRIDGE WILL COST

Milwaukee Concern Which Constructed the Court St. Structure Will Build It For $25,000.

City Engineer C. V. Kerch, who was directed by the city council at the last meeting to prepare plans for a new bridge to supplant the present Fourth avenue structure, has returned from Milwaukee where he secured an estimate from the Wisconsin Iron & Bridge Co., the concern which built the Court Street structure. The latter cost $13,885 but since its completion the cost of material and labor have undergone a marked advance and it appears that a new bridge of the same type as the Court street structure and somewhat longer to meet the necessities of the case, will cost in the neighborhood of $25,000.

LEADING EVENTS OF PRESENT WEEK

A PROGRAM OF THE THINGS THAT ARE TO HAPPEN.

THE DOINGS IN CONGRESS

Appropriation Bills Will Occupy Much of the Time of the Lawmakers.
—Other Things of Importance.

Some of the time of the senate and most of the time of the house during the present week will be devoted to the discussion of appropriation bills. The senate will conclude its consideration of the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill and may reach the Indian bill. The house will finish its work on the fortifications bill and will in turn take up the bill making appropriations for the District of Columbia and the diplomatic and consular service.

Before proceeding with appropriation bills the house will devote a day to miscellaneous bills in the interest of the District of Columbia, and Monday has been set aside for that purpose. It is also possible that the appropriation bill before the senate will be temporarily displaced Monday by the Foraker resolution providing for an investigation of the Brownsville riot. Senator Cullom, who has charge of the appropriation bill, announces his purpose not to yield the floor again until this measure is disposed of, and if he persists in his determination, consideration of the Brownsville matter will necessarily be deferred. The prospect of receiving Assistant Attorney Purdy's report on that subject on Monday adds to what already holds a keen interest, and a large attendance may be expected in the senate when it is under consideration. Speeches are yet to be made by Senators Spooner, Carmack and Stone, and it is not expected that Senator Foraker will permit the closing of the debate without further remarks. The present prospect is for the practically unanimous adoption of a compromise resolution simply directing an investigation into the occurrence at Brownsville and remaining silent on the legal phases of the question.

Increase of Salaries.

In the senate there will be an effort to incorporate a provision in the legislative appropriation bill increasing the salaries of senators and representatives from $5,000 to $7,500 and unless this proposition arouses debate, the legislative bill will probably be passed with but little discussion. There will also be an attempt to restore the house provision for an increase of the salaries of the vice president, the speaker of the house and the members of the cabinet. The fate of that proposition, however, will largely depend on the disposition of the twin provision for an increase in the salaries of members of congress.

Some of the members of the house committee on appropriations will try to secure the incorporation in the fortifications bill of an amendment looking to the creation of an island for the purpose of defense at the mouth of Chesapeake bay and appropriating for that purpose about $3,000,000 when the bill comes up in the house. Gen. Kiefer and Judge Walter Smith differed sharply over this point in committee and when Mr. Smith, who opposed the provision, prevailed there, the Ohio member announced his determination to appeal to the house and his manner was such that those who heard him predict a very positive effort in that direction. The house is looking forward with great expectancy to the decision of the committee on merchant marine on the subject of ship subsidy bill. The committee will meet on Tuesday, and members say that the question will be finally decided on that day. Mr. Watson, of Indiana, who has consistently opposed the senate bill, now announces his willingness to accept a compromise measure providing for both Atlantic and Pacific mail subsidies to South American ports and for an increase of the subsidy to the Australian line now in existence as well as for assistance to a new loan from the Pacific coast to China and Japan. It is now asserted by the advocates of compromise, that only the opposition of the supporters of the full senate bill stands in the way of a report.

The senate will probably return to the discussion of the Smoot case on Friday when Mr. Smoot's colleague, Senator Sutherland and Senator Dillingham will speak in opposition to the unseating resolution. Later Mr. Smoot will address the senate in his own behalf and the discussion on his side will be closed by Senator Foraker.

Thursday will be devoted to eulogies in the senate on the character of the late Senator Bate, of Tennessee. He also will be eulogized in the house next Sunday.

Senator Fulton will make an effort during the week to get the senate to fix a day to consider the revised penal code reported by him last week.

Important Convention.

An important national convention for the extension of foreign commerce will be held in Washington this week. President Roosevelt is expected to address the convention on Wednesday evening and Secretary Root also probably will take part in the proceedings. The opening session will be at 10:30 o'clock Monday morning and there will be meetings for several days thereafter. The movement is under the direction of the New York board of trade and transportation which sent invitations to the governors of the various states and to numerous commercial bodies throughout the country.

Secretary Root, accompanied by Mrs. Root, will leave Washington January 17 for Ottawa, Canada, where he will be the guest of Earl Grey, governor general of Canada. The secretary will arrive at Ottawa January 19 and remain over Sunday.

What may prove to be an unusually sensational murder trial is scheduled to begin in New York next Thursday when Louise de Massey is called to answer for the murder of Gustav Simon, a shirt-waist manufacturer by whom she had been employed as a designer. Counsel for the defense says he will and remain over Sunday. What may prove the fatal shot was fired by one of Simon's enemies who was concealed in the office.

The sessions of the American tariff commissioners with the representatives of the German government, which for a month past have been held almost daily in Berlin with the object of finding a basis for a reciprocity treaty to go into effect on the expiration of the existing provision, will end January 17.

A French Church Council.

A plenary council of the French bishops to discuss the situation of the church in France has been summoned to meet January 15 at the Chateau de La Muette in Paris. It is expected that the bishops will simply register the pope's decision as expressed in the encyclical issued by his holiness January 11, which seemingly put an end to the hopes of the moderates that the church would eventually accommodate itself to the new conditions in France.

The New York State Bar association will hold its annual meeting in Albany this week and on Tuesday will be addressed by former Assistant United States Attorney General J. M. Dickinson, of Chicago. Mr. Dickinson will speak on "Centralization by Construction and Interpretation of the Constitution." Another very important subject to come before the bar association is that of "the law's delays," which the program states, was suggested by President Roosevelt's recent message to congress.

The annual banquet will be held at the Ten Eyck on Wednesday evening, January 16.

COLD WAVE IN NORTHWEST.

Severe Weather Registered and Causing Much Suffering.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 14.—According to information received by the local weather observer, a cold wave of considerable intensity has developed in the wake of the heavy snowstorm which has been raging throughout eastern Montana and western North Dakota.

At eight o'clock Sunday thermometer readings at stations in the Canadian northwest showed temperatures ranging from 14 below zero at Minnesota to 32 below at both Battleford and Swift Current. In the United States the coldest place was Havre, Mont., where there was a sub-zero mark of 22 degrees. Other temperatures were Helena, Mont., 14 below; Miles City, Mont., ten below; Bismarck, N. D., six below; Williston, N. D., 13 below; Devils Lake, N. D., 15 below.

The intense cold, which the weather forecaster expects to prevail for a day or two at least, will materially add to the sufferings of those communities experiencing a fuel famine.

MOVE TO ORGANIZE CIVIC FEDERATION IN CHICAGO.

BENEFIT CENTRAL WEST

Labor Leaders and Capitalists Gather at Palatial Home of Mrs. Potter Palmer—All in Conciliatory Mood.

Chicago, Jan. 14.—Labor and capital, the workers of Chicago and their employers, met Saturday night on common ground and equality. The project of settling their difficulties by conciliation brought them together at the residence of Mrs. Potter Palmer, 100 Lake Shore drive.

It was a conference under the auspices of the National Civic Federation and was attended by more than 600 persons. Perhaps half of them were trade unionists and probably every labor organization in the city was represented. The object of the meeting was the organization of a branch of the Civic Federation for Chicago and the central west.

Branch to Be Organized.

As a result of the conference a meeting will be held in Chicago this week at which a western branch of the National Federation will be organized.

Chicago, according to the plan, will become the central point from which the efforts of the National Civic Federation will be exerted throughout the central and middle western states, as they have been heretofore in the eastern and New England states.

An important result, it is believed, will be a decrease in the numbers of strikes and lockouts, and the establishment of better relations between employers and employees.

Belmont and Low Speak.

August Belmont, president of the federation, and Seth Low, formerly mayor of New York, and now chairman of the conciliation department, told what the association had done along the line of adjusting the differences between labor and capital with resorting to strikes. Miss Gertrude Becks, a young woman who has devoted much time and study to improving conditions of working men and women, showed what had been done for their comfort in the factories.

Union Labor Has Last Say.

But it was union labor that had the final word. "The climax of the conference came in a hearty union labor speech such as is delivered at nearly every meeting of organized labor. It was by President William D. (Billy) Mahon of the Amalgamated Association of Street Railroad Employees. He stirred his auditors.

"With all due respect to the young woman who has just spoken," said Mr. Mahon, advancing to the front of the platform, with his hands in his trousers pockets, "we want dining rooms not only in our factories but in our homes.

"We don't want to wipe out the wealth of the world. We want to dynamite the hovels. (Enthusiastic applause from everyone, including Mrs. Palmer.) We want to better our condition. We want homes like this, if we can get them. Give us our opportunity and we'll duplicate all the wealth in the world by our labor within 20 years."

Baseball League to Meet.

South Bend, Ind., Jan. 14.—President Carson has called the annual meeting of the Central Baseball league for January 21 at Toledo. Besides the election of a president, the schedule will be considered. Fort Wayne, Ind., and Youngstown and Akron, O., will attempt to buy a franchise in the league.

OFFICER LEADS MOB.

State Treasurer of Michigan and 200 Men Raid Saloons.

Chelsea, Mich., Jan. 14.—Armed with a heavy sledgehammer, State Treasurer Glazier of Michigan led 200 husky employees of his stove works here in a raid on the slot machines in the saloons and poolrooms of the town. A couple of hours later every gambling device in town was in a pile of blazing refuse on the main corners of the town.

The machines and their owners had incurred the anger of the state treasurer because his son Harold, who, although only 20 years old, is nominally vice president of the stove works, insisted on playing them, and had recently lost a considerable sum by pushing it in small amounts through the slots.

Could Not Reenlist.

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 14.—James Duncan, one of the members of Company D, Twenty-fifth Infantry, discharged without honor at El Reno, applied at the local recruiting office here for reenlistment, but was rejected under the orders of the president.

Old Naval Officer Dead.

Syracuse, N. Y., Jan. 14.—Burdette C. Gowing, chief engineer of the Kearsarge at the time it was wrecked in 1894, died yesterday at Tully, N. Y., his birthplace, aged 68 years. He had been on the retired list since 1895.

Railroad Man Dead.

Laredo, Texas, Jan. 14.—Capt. Thomas W. Dodd, vice-president of the Texas-Mexican railway, died at his residence in this city early today, after a protracted illness. Captain Dodd was born in Georgia in 1840.

It is said John D. Rockefeller has promised the University of Louisville a gift of $2,000,000.

Testimony has all been taken in the trial of President Shea, of the Teamsters' union, at Chicago.

It is rumored that the big Chicago packing houses are to combine with Louis F. Swift as president.

The Pennsylvania road is declared to be seeking control of the Santa Fe road to block Harriman's plans.

In a desperate battle between police and workmen at St. Petersburg four officers were killed and three injured.

Three-cent street car fares are now the vogue in Cleveland, pending the settlement of the traction problem in that city.

The mission board in conference at Philadelphia issued an appeal to President Roosevelt and King Edward to act on Congo outrages.

The White Star Steamship line's change of port from Liverpool to Southampton is expected to precipitate bitter competition for Atlantic traffic.

United States eclipses all the world's records in wealth; has most money, most gold, most millionaires, most railroads; rival of combined powers.

Coroner Edward Lepper, of Tiffin, O., conducted an inquest over the body of Adam Keller, a wealthy farmer who had committed suicide, by telephone, as the roads were impassable.

Upton Sinclair declared E. H. Harriman was the leading socialist in the country; placed Roosevelt second and Andrew Carnegie third. He lambasted the Wall street brokers for dishonesty.

John Graham Brooks, socialist and author, declared money caused destruction of the sanctity of the home, and said the only hope was in the efforts of socialists to destroy concentrated wealth.

BIG LAND-SLIP ON WABASH.

Occurs at Ohio River Bridge Near Mingo Junction.

Wheeling, Va., Jan. 14.—Early Sunday morning a tremendous slip occurred on the main line of the Wabash railroad on the West Virginia side of the Ohio river at the bridge opposite Mingo Junction, O., 18 miles above this city, which will put the road out of commission for several days; and in the meantime trains are being operated via other lines.

The slip extends for a distance of 700 feet from near the approach to the bridge and is 50 feet in width. Thousands of tons of earth slipped, carrying away the tracks and filling the bed of Cross creek, the waters of which are now flowing over a nearby cornfield.

Just as the slip started a west-bound freight train in charge of Engineer Charles McCabe was passing on to the bridge. Engineer McCabe felt the track collapsing and opened the throttle wide. The caboose and six freight cars of the train were demolished by the avalanche of earth. Several brakemen in the caboose saved themselves by running.

FIVE PEOPLE ARE KILLED.

Eleven Also Are Injured in Wreck of Chicago Bound Train.

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 14.—Running at a high rate of speed, Rock Island passenger train No. 30, which left here at 6:30 o'clock Sunday evening for Chicago, dashed into an open switch at Barney, N. M., 190 miles north of El Paso, early Monday morning. Five persons were killed and eleven injured, none fatally.

When the train dashed into a switch the engine left the track and turned over, pinning the engineer and fireman underneath and killing them instantly. The express car, dining car and a Pullman were thrown from the track. Of the eleven passengers hurt none will die.

The train wrecked was in collision on January 2 at Volland, Kan., with No. 29 on the same road and 32 persons, mostly Mexican laborers on their way to El Paso, were killed and over 20 persons were injured.

Wreck in Kansas.

Salina, Kan., Jan. 14.—Missouri Pacific passenger train No. 3, west-bound from St. Louis, was dived four miles east of Salina Sunday. Engineer Jake Rose was killed and Fireman Jones suffered a broken leg. None of the passengers was hurt. The engine turned over and all the coaches except the Pullman left the track. The accident was caused, by spreading rails.

Crown Prince Injured.

Lisbon, Jan. 14.—Crown Prince Luiz Philippe was thrown from his horse while riding in the palace grounds Saturday and suffered severe contusions. His horse was taking a fence and fell with the prince under him. The prince was rendered unconscious, but later recovered and now is considered to be in no danger.

Iowa College Favored.

Indianola, Iowa, Jan. 14.—From out of the Carnegie millions Simpson college is to receive a gift of $20,000 under the provision that the Des Moines conference raise an additional $80,000 endowment. This announcement was made by the Rev. Fletcher Homan, financial secretary of the college.

Hawaiians Dying Out.

When Hawaii was discovered by Captain Cook in 1778 it had a population of 200,000. There are now only 31,000 natives on the island.

We Offer $1,000.

For a Disease Germ That Liquezone Cannot Kill.

This offer goes out with every bottle of Liquezone. Do you suppose we would do that if any known germ could resist it?

Liquezone is for those who believe that a germ disease calls for a germicide; that the germs must be killed before the trouble can end. You have doubtless tried the old ways, and you know the results. We ask you to try the new way; to try it at our expense. Use what millions have used and learn what they know about it. You are not fair to yourself until you do that.

What Liquezone Is.

Liquezone is a tonic-germicide, the virtues of which are derived solely from oxide gases. No alcohol, no narcotic, nothing but gas enters into it. The process of making requires large apparatus, and consumes 14 days' time. The object is to so combine the gases with a liquid as to carry their virtues into the system.

The result is a germicide so certain that we publish with every bottle an offer of $1,000 for a disease germ that Liquezone cannot kill. It destroys them because germs are of vegetable origin. But to the body Liquezone is exhilarating, vitalizing, purifying.

That is its main distinction. Common germicides are poisons when taken internally. They are impossible, for they destroy the tissues as well as the germs. That is why medicine proves so helpless in dealing with germ diseases. Liquezone, on the contrary, acts as a remarkable tonic.

We Paid $100,000.

For the rights to Liquezone, after thousands of tests had been made with it, after its power had been demonstrated for more than two years in the most difficult germ diseases. Conditions which had resisted medicine for years yielded at once to it, and diseases considered incurable were cured.

That was five years ago. Since then millions of people in every part of the world have shared in the benefits of this invention. Nearly every hamlet, every neighborhood, has living examples of its power. Now we ask you to let it do for you what it did for them.

Germ Diseases.

Most of our sicknesses, as in late years, been traced to germ attacks. Some germs—as in skin troubles—directly attack the tissues. Some create toxins, causing such troubles as Rheumatism, Blood Poison, Kidney Disease and nerve weakness. Some destroy vital organs, as in Consumption. Some—like the germs of Catarrh—create inflammation; some cause indigestion. In one of these ways, nearly every serious ailment is a germ result.

Such conditions call for a germicide, not for common drugs. Liquezone does what other means cannot accomplish. And it is wrong to cling to old ways when millions of people know a way that is better.

50c Bottle Free.

If you wish to know what Liquezone does please send us this coupon. We will then mail you an order on a local druggist for a full-size bottle, and will pay the druggist ourselves for it. This is our free gift, made to convince you; to let the product itself show you what it can do. In justice to yourself, please accept it today, for it places you under no obligations whatever.

Liquezone costs 50c and $1.

SUIT HITS SUGAR TRUST

STORY OF MANY TRAGEDIES TO BE TOLD IN COURT.

Receiver of Pennsylvania Concern Will Ask Damages for Alleged Fraud and Conspiracy.

New York, Jan. 14.—The sugar trust and its principal officers will be called upon within a few days to defend actions for damages aggregating $20,000,000, and to answer in the federal courts the direct charge that by conspiracy and fraud they brought about the financial ruin of a competitor, wrecked the Real Estate Trust company of Philadelphia last summer, and drove its president, Frank K. Hipple, to suicide.

H. O. Havemeyer, president of, and John E. Parsons, general counsel for the American Sugar Refining company, are among the officers named in the legal papers already drawn up by the attorneys for George H. Earle Jr., Philadelphia's great organizer, who is receiver for the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining company.

Mr. Earle has laid the allegations of the conspiracy, with his evidence, before the attorney general's department at Washington, and criminal actions by the federal government under the Sherman anti-trust law are expected.

There is a fully equipped modern sugar refinery in Shackamaxon street, on the Delaware river, in Philadelphia, which has a capacity for turning out 4,000 barrels a day, but which has never been operated since it was built in 1903. It is charged by Receiver Earle that the sugar trust, by chicanery, obtained control of this refinery and has kept it idle, with the intent not only of stifling the competition the refinery was built to create but of ruining Adolph Segal, who projected it, and along with him several thousand innocent holders of stock and bonds.

BRITISH SHIP SINKS.

Crew of Twenty-four Men and Cargo Are Lost.

Cuxhaven, Germany, Jan. 14.—The British ship Pengwin, Capt. Williams, from Taitai, Chile, Oct. 6, for Falmouth, with a cargo of saltpeetre, grounded off Schaporn, about ten miles northwest of Cuxhaven. Twenty-four men comprising the crew were drowned and her cargo is a total loss.

The tug Vulkan went to the assistance of the stranded vessel and passing closely to her the crew of the Pengwin threw a live dog and a bundle of clothes aboard the tug, but disregarded the appeals to jump into the water so that they might be rescued. The Vulkan made repeated attempts to reach the Pengwin, but a heavy sea broke over her and she disappeared from view.

Wellman Balloon Ready.

Paris, Jan. 14.—Walter Wellman's enlarged balloon in which he hopes to reach the north pole and which is now inflated for the purpose of testing the impermeability of the envelope, was exhibited to a number of French aeronauts Sunday afternoon in the Galerie machines. M. Santos-Dumont, M. Deutsch and Count de LaVaux and other men prominent in aeronautics were present and showed great interest in the plans of the explorer. Mr. Wellman considers his balloon in perfect condition.

Schoolhouse Burns.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 13.—A Grand Forks special to the Pioneer Press says: "The lives of over a score of little ones were imperilled by a fire which almost totally destroyed St. John's academy. There were 32 children in the building when the fire broke out, but all were rescued. The building was valued at $20,000 and the loss is $15,000 with insurance of $7,000.

Big Colliery Fire.

Cumberland, Md., Jan. 14.—Fire destroyed the mining plant of the Consolidation Coal company, at Ocean, this country. The loss is estimated at about $60,000 and 500 men are thrown out of work.

BIDS FOR PANAMA CANAL.

Nashville and New York Men Offer Figures Lower Than Anticipated.

Washington, Jan. 14.—Proposals opened by the canal commission Saturday for the entire construction of the Panama canal were as low as had been expected by experts in construction work. Several members of the commission believed seven per cent. of the estimated cost of the construction would be a fair remuneration under the contract prepared by the commission.

The lowest proposal, that of William J. Oliver of Knoxville, Tenn., and Anson M. Bangs of New York, who offered to do the work for 6.75 per cent. of the estimated cost, falls even lower than had been hoped for. Granting that the estimate of $140,000,000 for the construction of the canal is accurate, the remuneration of the Oliver-Bangs combination would be $9,450,000.

Much discussion was caused by the great difference in the only four bids received, as they ranged from 6.75 per cent. to 28 per cent.

We have a good list of these farms. FOR SALE.

12,000 Acres of Timber Lands in Western Maryland.

This land is accessible to two railroads; one running through a portion of the tract; also to the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal. This property is near the markets of Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Harrisburg, and Pittsburgh, with intermediate points. It has two subler springs, one of which is hot. Splendid iron ore outcrops, lying in the immediate vicinity of the Anthracite Range. It is safe to say coal will be found on the property. It carries a Sandstone Quarry of five different colors, and an inexhaustible supply of building stone for construction purposes.

Timber.

Oak, poplar, chestnut, hickory, ash, cucumber and pine. About 1/2 of this is white and chestnut oak. The remaining one-fourth being divided up among the other varieties. 3,000 acres of this tract is in the original growth, balance second growth. It is estimated to cut at least 40,000,000 feet of merchantable lumber; and 2,000 mine props, which should net delivered at railroads or canal not less than $150,000 as props are at present selling at $9.00 per hundred. 40,000,000 feet of stumpage located as this is, near two lines of railroad and so accessible to large markets should be worth $3 per M., or $120,000.

Land.

The land is of excellent quality for general agricultural purposes; being especially adapted to the raising of apples, pears, peaches, and all the smaller fruits and berries.

Climate is excellent, water good and in great abundance from both springs and streams. Everything considered, there is no more desirable tract of land for colonization purposes in the east.

Arrangements could be made with one of the Steamship Companies, engaged in the immigration business, either in Baltimore or New York, to at once under contract into mine props, colonize these lands at from $5 to $10 per acre after timber has been removed. 5000 acres (2d growth) can be cut and delivered at the railroads where they bring cash. Stone quarries can be operated under contract, iron and coal mined on a royalty; so no further capital will be required until buyer is ready to build mill, to handle the 8,000 acres of virgin timber.

This valuable timber is offered at $12.00 per acre, subject to previous sale, with title guaranteed. Terms of payment are 1/4 cash, balance in annual installments to suit purchaser, same bearing interest from date of sale.

"Sit down," he commanded. "Got my wife, I suppose?"

"Yes, sir."

"Well, what's your lowest price for the anchor and chain of the Liberty, which I understand you have bought, delivered on the Orham wharf? Lowest, mind. No trimmings!"

"Five hundred dollars."

"All right, you may take it up. I'll give you four hundred cash for the job. Go ahead, and work quick. Good day, Nickerson; glad to have met you."

He swung around to the desk and picked up some papers. But Bradley did not go.

"Excuse me, Mr. Cook," he said. "Our figure was five hundred, not four."

"Humph! Well, five's robbery. Four's what I'll pay."

"All right, sir. Sorry we can't trade. Good morning."

"Hold on there!" shouted the owner of the Liberty. "Do you mean you won't raise the anchor?"

"Not for less than five hundred."

"Split the difference. Make it four-fifty."

"No, sir."

"Oh, well, hang it, go ahead! Five hundred, then—only don't bother me any more."

But Bradley still hesitated. "There is just one thing more, Mr. Cook," he said. "That chain has sanded in every day since it has been on that bottom."

"I'm glad you feel that way, cap'n. Of course a diver'll be expensive. The salvage company will charge us anywhere from $15 to $20 a day for a good one. And there's where I'm afraid the whole speculation falls down. We don't know how that tar lies, whether the hull's broken up, whether the barrels are sanded over or not. It might take so long to get it out that we'd lose money."

The captain, with both hands jammed into his pockets—his beakets, he called them—was pacing up and down. "I've got your diver, boy," he cried. "That is, I've got him if you say the word. Five dollars a day, too, instead of fifteen."

"Where in the world?"

"Right here in Orham. And he's had plenty of experience. What's the matter with Sam Hammond?"

"Sam Hammond! Sain—why, Cap'n Ez, what are you talking about? Sam told me himself that he'd come home to rest. He's going back to New York in a little while. He wouldn't work for us!"

"Wouldn't, hey? Brad, 'twas the fellow with one leg that was too religious to dance. Sam's out of a job. Maybe he fired the boss; maybe the boss fired him. All I know is that he told me last night he'd dive for us at $5 per course. He'd only do it to help us out, but that's all right. I don't care if there's a hole in the bag so long as the cookies are inside."

And so that is how Samuel Hammond, late of the Metropolitan Wrecking company of New York, came to enter the employ of Titcomb & Nickerson, to whom he had contemptuously referred as "anchor draggers." But if Bradley supposed for a moment that Sam would change his patronizing attitude because of the move he was much mistaken. Mr. Hammond laughed when he boarded the Lizzie, asked facetiously if "this was the vessel or only the long boat?" and poked fun at the whole outfit generally. He gave each member of the crew to understand that he was only doing this for a while to help out Brad. He said that putting around this way was such a change for him that it was the best fun of his vacation.

He took pains to make his position plain in the minds of the townspeople. Captain Jabez Bailey told Bradley in a confidential whisper: "It's mighty good of Sam to turn to and help you and Ez out of a hole. I hope you appreciate it." Bradley said he appreciated it fully.

Even Gus was inclined to view the matter in that light. Sam saw to it that she did. He called at the Baker homestead pretty often, and when Bradley was there treated the latter in a jolly, good fellow sort of way that couldn't well be resented, but which had always in it that aggravating flavor of pitying patronage.

Bradley felt that he was placed in an awkward and humiliating position. He told Gus so plainly.

"Gus," he asked, "do you think it's fair to allow Sam to call here as he does?"

A more experienced ladies' man—Captain Titcomb, for instance—would not have selected this particular evening to bring up this particular subject. Gus was in one of her uncertain moods. She had refused to be serious before, and she was not serious now.

"Why, Bradley Nickerson?" she exclaimed, with a laugh. "I do believe you're jealous!"

"No, I'm not jealous exactly. But why do you let him come here?"

"Brad, don't you trust me?"

"Of course I trust you."

"Then why are you suspicious or what are you afraid of?"

"This very direct question was embarrassing. Bradley felt certain that he had good reason to be suspicious of Hammond's intentions, but he knew he had no actual proof that would warrant his saying so. He stammered and could reply only that he didn't like the fellow's calling so often."

Bradley went home injured and resentful. He made up his mind that Gus shouldn't have another chance to call him "jealous." He could show her that there were others who didn't care.

He plunged into business deeper than ever. The diving outfit came from Boston and worked well. They visited the sunken tar schooner, and Sam made his first dive. Captain Titcomb, who understood the apparatus, worked the pump. Sam reported that the tar seemed to be in good condition, and that, for the present, they could get up a number of the barrels through the hatchway. Later they might have to blow away a part of the hull.

So every fair day they worked over the wreck. Sam, in the diver's suit, clambered down into the submerged vessel's hold and attached the barrels to the tackle. Then, by the aid of the windlass, they were hauled up and swung aboard the Lizzie. By the first of October they had already got out over 200 barrels, and Sam said that he saw no reason why all of the $500 might not be secured in the course of time. The far speculation was already a very profitable one, and the credit belonged to Bradley.

There was to be what the posters called "a grand select subscription ball" at the Orham town hall on the evening of Oct. 10. Gus had expressed a desire to go to the ball, and Bradley had subscribed—that is to say, he had paid $2 for a ticket admitting "gent and two ladies."

He dressed for the affair when the evening came with no very pleasant anticipations. The relations between Gus and himself had not improved since the disagreement over Sam's visits.

The partners were expecting a check from New Bedford in payment of the first shipment of tar, and as it was early when Bradley finished dressing, he determined to go down to the post-office before calling for Gus. Captain Titcomb was out of town. He had not told where he was going, merely observing that he wanted a couple of days off for private business. What the private business was he did not state.

The expected check did not arrive on that mail, and as Bradley came down the postoffice steps some one laid a heavy hand on his shoulder. He turned with a start.

"Why, hello, Cap'n Ez!" he exclaimed. "You back again?"

The captain looked his arm into that of his companion and led the way through the crowd of loungers on the sidewalk. Bradley protested.

"Cap'n Ez, wait till some other time. I must."

"Shut up! I'm so full of steam I'll bile over in a minute. This ain't foolin'; it's business."

He dragged his puzzled partner along the sidewalk and across the road to the Traveler's Rest. Then he led the way upstairs and into his own room.

"Now, Brad," he said, "you know mighty well I've got something important to say or I wouldn't have snaked you up by the coat collar this way. But never mind that. If you ain't interested enough to—"

"You know I'm interested, Cap'n Ez. Only do hurry."

The captain locked the door again. Then he took a bundle of papers from his overcoat pocket and, selecting a card from among them, said impressively, "Brad, what have you and me been prayin' for for the last three months or more?"

"I don't know," he replied. "Do you mean a big job?"

"I mean somethin' that'll give us the tools to do a good many big jobs with. I mean a new, up-to-date wreckin' vessel." He leaned across the table. "Brad, my son," he said slowly, "I've got that very craft."

"You've got her?"

He tossed the card on the table, and Bradley picked it up. It was the photograph of a good sized, two masted schooner—a wrecking schooner, and of modern build; so much was plain.

"Look at her!" cried the captain. "Ain't she a dream? And that tinfole don't begin to do her justice. Now, Brad, that schooner's the Diving Belle, built in New Bedford two years ago and cost eight thousand to build. No steam about her; built for wreckin'; good seasoned timber, trawles, patent windlass, nice, light, roomy cabin, anchors, sails, all complete—and a first class sixteen horsepower gasoline engine. And, son," Captain Titcomb raised his fist, "you and me can buy the whole blessed outfit for $5,000 cash!"

The fist fell on the table with a bang. Bradley gasped in delighted wonder.

"When Captain Titcomb really enthused over a subject he was a wonderful talker. Now, shaking a forefinger in his companion's face, he talked so fast that Bradley forgot everything except to listen. The schooner had been built for one Abijah Foster of Vineyard Haven. She had been engaged in the wrecking business for two seasons along the south Jersey coast, and then her owner died. His widow was the only heir, and she needed money. The vessel had been bought by a Nantucket man, but when it came to paying the price there had been a hitch that resulted in the collapse of the deal."

No "Quake" Can Halt Collier

Frisco Disaster Destroyed
Manuscript of "Caught
In the Rain."

But He Rewrote It While Touring Australia.
The Cast.

[From Our New York Dramatic Correspondent.]

If an earthquake could not stop William Collier from presenting "Caught In the Rain," how can the puny American critics hope to do so? The comedian's new play is a farce, which he is now presenting at the Garrick theater.

Collier, in collaboration with Grant Stuart, had just completed the three acts in San Francisco when the disaster overtook him, and the manuscript was lost. But Mr. Collier had faith and perseverance, and while touring Australia he wrote the play all over again.

The plot, as created by the joint stars, concerns Dick Crawford, a mining engineer, who thinks little of risking his life to save an injured workman, but who quails at the sight of a petticoat. He is so bashful, in fact, that when he and Miss Muriel Mason are caught under an awning to escape a rainstorm, he fidgets and turns many colors of the rainbow. The engineer is forced to entertain the young woman for half an hour, and when he finally hands her into a cab he tries to make himself believe that he is glad to be rid of so uncomfortable a charge. The truth is, however, that Dick has fallen in love and fallen so badly that he thinks of nothing else.

Nanette Comstock, who has supported Mr. Collier in several roles, plays Muriel. Others in the cast include George Nash, Wallace Eddinger, Grant Stuart, Joseph Kaufman, Alan Allen, Thomas Garrick, Thomas Martin, Charles Moore, Duncan Harris, John B. Adam, Thomas Lennon, Jane Laurel, Helena Collier and Louise Drew.

ROBERT BUTLER.

"BREWSTER'S MILLIONS."

G. D. McCutcheon's Well Known Novel In Stage Form.

"Brewster's Millions," which Thompson & Dundy have produced at the New Amsterdam theater, New York, is from George McCutcheon's story of the same title, by Winchell Smith and Byron Ungley. It is a satire on frenzied finance. In the third act Mr. Thompson has arranged an effect presenting a yacht in a storm at sea.

In their dramatization of Mr. McCutcheon's book Messrs. Smith and Ungley have taken certain dramatic liberties, but the main theme is not destroyed. Related briefly, the story tells of the efforts of Montgomery Brewster to spend in one year $1,000,000, an inheritance from his grandfather, to obtain a bequest of $7,000,000, willed under certain conditions to him by an uncle.

The cast is headed by Edward Abeles.

"Matilda" a New Farce.

Walter N. Lawrence has presented for the first time in New York at the Lincoln Square a three act farce with music entitled "Matilda." L. N. Morris is the author of the book and George H. Cartlan and Everett Ruskay contributed the music and lyrics. Alfred H. Hickman heads the cast, which includes Amy Richard, Maude Fulton, Lionel Welsh, Katherine Emmett, Joseph Tobey, Charles Lane and Edwin Middleton. The scenes of the play are located in a modern apartment house in New York and on board a palatial steam yacht in New York harbor.

Hebrew Congregations.
Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 14.—Delegates from all parts of the country have arrived in the city to attend the annual meeting of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations. The un-

The Roundup By Willie West

He Says a Few on Bowling,
Also Several on the Prize Ring.

Now that the bowling season is in our middle it becomes necessary for the sport scribe to say something about the game, whether he knows anything about it or not. The chief feature of bowling is its difference from baseball. In ball if you make three strikes you're out. In bowling if you make three strikes you're very much in. The bowling costume is also a distinct fea-

ACCIDENTS WILL HAPPEN IN BOWLING. The conventional garb is a pair of soft soled shoes, trousers, a pair of suspenders, eight steins of beer, six cigars and a raucous style of conversation. If your language isn't such as would blunt an ice pick, you're only half dressed.

Also you must have the innate ability to talk engagingly about the scores you used to make and the scores you could make now if you didn't have a blister on your thumb. Hence, you see, imagination comes prominently into play in this game.

Another qualification for bowling is the habit of telling your fellow pin smashers just how to improve their game. You must be able to point out the superiority of your own style in detail, also explaining that simply because you yourself finish last in each game is no proof that you don't know more about it than any one else. You of course are a student, have mastered the theory and basic principles of the sport, while your opponents—they only knock down the pins.

Battling Nelson says he intends to stick to Billy Nolan, no matter what happens. In this respect But reminds us of the fellow who had his finger in the other man's mouth and refused to let go.

Jack O'Brien says Tommy Burns is looking for an "easy mark." Is that the reason why Burns wants another fight with O'Brien?

There are three classes of bowlers—conversational bowlers, hot sport bowlers and bowlers. The hot sport breed is by long odds the most unique. His only excuse for being in the game is that he can afford to pay when he loses. He makes a strike now and then, whereupon the neighbors all join him in a round of drinks, some of them ordering a cigar on the side while the hot sport isn't looking.

The hot sport's style of bowling is very coarse. He picks out the heaviest ball, takes a McFadden physical torture pose and slams the ball through the air about twenty-five feet. When it hits the alley it bounces off into the gutter and ricochets to the farbox of one of the pin boys. Thus it will be seen that when the hot sport is at the tiler the average life of a bowling alley is about four days, that of a pin boy about four minutes. But, as I said before, he has the price.

Ice Yacht Campaign Now On

Auto Racing Isn't So Swift
Compared to Ice Craft Performances.

How About the World's Record
Made by the Scud?
Famous Courses.

Now for the ice yacht races! In the whirling dust and demon din of automobile speeding one should not forget that an ice yacht can "go some" too. And a mile a minute is slow time for an ice boat, just as it is for a gasoline spouting man mauler.

The racing fleets of Lake Minnetonka, Minnesota; the Hudson river, New York; the Shrewsbury river, New Jersey; Lake Champlain, Vermont; Lake Winnebago, Wisconsin; Lake Michigan; Lake Erie; Orange lake, New York, and of the Delaware river are all ready for the campaign.

Some races have already been held on various of the above named speeding courses, but the middle of January and the entire month of February carry the sport to the top of its swing. The famous Shrewsbury fleet, the Drab, is all tuned up, and her new owner hopes to pay her stable bills with the prizes he expects to corral.

International championship races will be held in Wisconsin again this year. The middle west and Canada hope to defeat the New Jersey champion Scud, now in Wisconsin, where she was taken a year or two ago to compete. Many authorities agree that the Scud made the fastest mile ever covered by any ice craft. The time is variously reported to be from thirty-seven to forty-three seconds. The latter mark is probably the correct one. The record in question was made several years ago on a straightaway course on the Shrewsbury river.

This record has since been closely approached on Lake Michigan, and, in fact, according to some chroniclers, it has been equaled there.

NEW WALKING RECORD.

Englishman Goes a Mile in a Little Over Six Minutes.

A. T. Yoemans, the English amateur champion walker, performed a remarkable walking feat recently by covering a mile in the astounding time of 6 minutes 19.3 seconds, breaking all former world's records, both amateur and professional.

Yoemans made his appearance for the first time on the athletic horizon last year, and at each and every contest demonstrated that he is the heel and toe phenomenon of all time. Heretofore the world's amateur record for the mile was held by Frank P. Murray of the old Williamsburg A. C. (New York), and his time was 6 minutes 29.3 seconds made at New York city Oct. 27, 1893.

Harris After Abe Attell.

Harry Harris, the former bantam-weight champion pugilist, is now out after the scalp of Abe Attell for the championship in the featherweight division. Recently Harris announced that he wanted to get a match with Abe Attell, to be fought in Goldfield, Nev., in place of the scrap between Attell and Jim Bowker of England, for which the Goldfield promoters had offered a purse of $10,000.

Evans Has Keen Eye For Business.

The Kentucky trainer, Will Evans, who last year sold Kentucky Todd, 2:14, for $6,000, got the same figure for a youngster by Jay McGreggor.

"Hank's" New Play.

FAMILY REUNION AT MOTHER'S BIRTHDAY

Mrs. L. M. Skavlem Celebrates Her Eightieth Birthday—Other Line City News.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Beloit, Wis., Jan. 14.—Mrs. L. M. Skavlem of this city celebrated her eightieth birthday today with a family reunion. H. L. Skavlem, a son, and Miss Gertrude and Louis Skavlem, grandchildren, all of Janesville, were among those present. Mrs. Helen Johnson and Mrs. E. A. Thompson of Beloit were the other two children present, aside from several grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Mrs. Skavlem has been a resident of Rock county for sixty-two years and a resident of Beloit for twenty-five.

Burchell in Beloit.
Professor Burchell of Madison, who spoke before the last meeting of the Twilight Club in Janesville, is to address the Six O'Clock club here on Wednesday evening.

Chicken Thieves.
Saturday evening Bort Hawkins, a barber in Reynolds' Barbershop, heard noises in the rear of the store where chicken coops are located and upon investigation Harve Bundy, an ex-convict, and Al Murry in the act of appropriating birds. The men will be arrested today.

Frightens Burglar Away.
Mrs. C. H. Uppham, whose home is on Roosevelt avenue, heard the noise of a window falling Saturday evening and upon investigation Sunday morning discovered a second-story window was out. Footprints on the roof of the porch led to the belief that a thief was frightened off by the noise he made.

Arrange for Hospital.
Ten Beloit physicians have formed a stock company to conduct a city hospital in a portion of the Presbyterian Church block, recently bought by Dr. Helms. They expect to have the building ready for occupancy in ninety days.

Bust in Snow.
C. M. Garvin, a saloon proprietor, yesterday moulded a bust of Garabaldi, the famous Italian patriot, in snow. The snow image was very lifelike and attracted considerable attention. Garvin is an Italian and studied sculpture in Italy before coming to this country.

The Blue and the Gray.
Wilmington, N. C., Jan. 14.—Judging from the prominence of those who are arriving here to take part in tomorrow's reunion of the Blue and the Gray, the event will be one of the most notable of the country ever has seen. Union and Confederate veterans of national fame are included in the list of scheduled speakers. All arrangements for the reunion have been completed by the Fort Fisher Survivors' association. The exercises will be held on the scene of the engagement between the Confederate and Federal forces before Fort Fisher.

ENDS ONE SENTENCE; BEGINS LIFE TERM

"Bad Nigger" Finishes Seven Years for Larceny But Must Now Atone for Murder of Guard.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Leavenworth, Kas., Jan. 14.—Frank Thompson, a negro with a reputation of being one of the worst men ever confined in the federal prison here, will tomorrow finish a seven-year term for larceny. Freedom will not come with the expiration of his sentence, however, for he will immediately enter upon a life term for the murder of Guard J. P. Waldrup. During the big mutiny at the prison five years ago Thompson tried to kill one of the guards. He was one of those who effected an escape and was pursued across the country by an armed posse. "He was caught at Quenemo, Kas., after he had been wounded by one of the pursuing party. Two years later he murderously assaulted another guard in a futile attempt to escape."

Ohio Bowling Tourney

Toledo, O., Jan. 14.—The Ohio state bowling tournament, for which preparations have been going forward all winter, opened today under promising auspices. The entry list includes individual players and teams from Cleveland, Columbus, Mansfield, Dayton, Youngstown and a number of other cities. The sum of $2500 will be distributed in prizes among the winners.

Big Bonspiel Is On

Duluth, Minn., Jan. 14.—With every indication pointing to one of the biggest and best in the history of the organization, the fourteenth annual bonspiel of the Northwestern Curling association opened here today. The play will continue during the greater part of the week under the auspices of the Duluth Curling club. The scene of the competitions is a magnificent rink with ten sheets of ice, all under one roof. The contestants include crack teams from many parts of Minnesota, Wisconsin, upper Michigan and Manitoba.

Pulsations of a Watch.

The lifetime of a watch is 50 years, says Amateur Work. In its daily duties the balance vibrates 18,000 times every hour, 432,000 times a day, or 157,000,000 times a year. The hair-spring makes a similar number of vibrations and an equal number of ticks from the escapement. If it is a really good watch, multiply 157,000,000 by 50, which gives 7,840,000,000 pulsations for 50 years. The chances are that the watch may even then be in serviceable condition.

Miners Use Tons of Snuff.

The miners of Cornwall, England, are the best customers of snuff merchants, their consumption being enormous. Nearly 100 tons of snuff—what is known as "violet snuff"—is their favorite "sneeze"—will go down to them in a year, all done up in one-pound packets.
